Sketch It Out!

For hundreds of years, art students have studied and sketched works of art in museums to learn about different techniques and to learn how to tell a story or express ideas visually.

Using the frame pictured left, choose a work of art that interests you and spend some time sketching it.

When you finish your sketch, share it with your friends and family. Talk with them about what you noticed as you looked carefully at the work of art.

Family Programs at the MFAH receive generous support from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Shell Free Thursdays are supported by a grant from the Shell Oil Company Foundation. Additional support is provided by The Boeing Company; ConocoPhillips; and the Junior League of Houston, Inc.

All education programs at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, receive endowment income from funds provided by Caroline Wiess Law; the National Endowment for the Humanities; the William Randolph Hearst Foundation; the Fondren Foundation; BMC Software, Inc.; the Wallace Foundation; the Louise Jarrett Moran Bequest; the Neal Myers and Ken Black Children's Art Fund; the Favrot Fund; and Gifts in honor of Beth Schneider.
