

MFAH CAMPUS

PEDESTRIAN TUNNEL LL (Lower Level)

The MFAH comprises five buildings connected by an underground tunnel.

The Nancy and Rich Kinder Building opening is sponsored in part by a major grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts.

The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, is funded in part by the City of Houston through Houston Arts Alliance.

Photography at the Museum

The MFAH welcomes personal photography or videography, solely for private, noncommercial use. The use of handheld cameras and phones is permitted. However, for the safety and enjoyment of guests and to protect the art, the following are not allowed: flash photography, tripods, selfie sticks, standing lights, drones, and other related equipment, gear, and add-ons.

This policy applies to internal and external settings at all MFAH properties, including the main campus in the Museum District, the Glassell School of Art, Rienzi, and Bayou Bend.
